

Administrative changes of public administration in process of democratization
(Lukov, Czech republic)

Main points of the program:

- getting to know the history of the Czech republic in European context
- "Velvet revolution" (November 1989) – basis for the future democratic development in the country
- current political and economical situation in the Czech republic
- introduction to main political power authorities
- introduction to a communal sphere
- function of government administration top authorities and communal autonomies, president´s position
- elective system in the Czech republic
- media in a period of democratization
- civil enterprise, associations, non-profit government and non-government organizations, their work in democratic system
- social policy of the country (health service, education)
- history of crime for the last 10 years in comparison with the period before 1989
- development of tourism after 1989
- Czech republic now - entering European Union

Conference modules:

- lecture on history
- ministry of defense, worker´s lecture
- mass media, specialist´s lecture
- civil enterprise, delegate´s lecture
- non-profit organization, delegate´s lecture
- ministry of work and social affairs, worker´s lecture
- ministry of communal development, worker´s lecture
- European data bank, representative´s lecture
- Czech education office, worker´s lecture
- lawyer´s lecture about elective system in the Czech republic

Contact module:

- visit to a hospital
- visit to a discussion of the Senate and the Parliament
- visit to a social welfare institute
- discussion with communal policy deputies
- discussion with mass media deputies
- visit to a anti drug center
- discussion with police deputies
- discussion with high school students
- visit to a regional museum
- discussion with senator